Me es grato comunicar a Vds el resultado satisfactorio del nuevo examen quimico del 'Flu do Little' que acabo de practicar sobre una muestra de este especifico enviada por Vds a este laboratorio el 12 del corr. y fabricado por Morris Little e Hijo en Inglaterra.
Confrontando el analisis de esta muestra con mi analisis del mismo especifico practicado en Febrero de 1879 encuentro un aumento considerable en su grado de concentracion; su densidad es superior, la proporcion de fenoles contenidos en los aceites es mayor, y en una palabra lo considero no solo superior al producto primitivo, sino el mas concentrado y activo de cuantos de su clase he tenido ocasion de examinar hasta la fecha. Esta observacion se refiere, se entiende, esclusivamente a los especificos contra la sarna, que tienen por base los aceites Hidro carburados y fenoles del alquitran y que no deben su eficacia al arsenico, al azufre, o al tabaco, sustancias que no existen en el 'Fluido Little.' Apesar de su mayor concentracion el Fluido se mezcla con el agua fria con la misma facilidad y perfeccion como antes.

AYACUCHO VEGETABLE TRADE.

The loading of railway waggons at the Boca with every description of vegetable and fruit for such a remote country town as Ayacucho is but another evidence of the vagaries of South American trade. Of course there is nothing extraordinary in sending to some of these South country towns large baskets of peaches and pears by the first train every morning, since, owing to the hail storms &c. they may have lost all the fruit down there: but kitchen vegetables are of a different character. The people in Ayacucho can certainly grow parsley enough for their requirements, and onions and potatoes should, in the proper order of things, be coming up to us from the South instead of our loading goods waggons with such stuff. At the Central Station every morning one sees large hampers filled with fruit brought up from the Tigre and despatched to Dolores, Tandil and Azul, whilst down at the Boca waggon upon waggon is loaded with potatoes, pumpkins, maize, onions, parsley &c., and all these vegetables, we learn, go to Ayacucho. More still, some of the best-known estancias in the South, when the patrones visit them with their families, are supplied with vegetables, butter and cheese, candles, soap &c., all from town. As for wines &c., we make no remark, since they are beyond the producing power of those places: but to be sending by rail potatoes, pumpkins, even parsley, to Ayacucho, proves a laziness on the part of the people down there that must be held up to public censure.

Nothing can justify such an abnormal trade; the country around Ayacucho is some of the most fertile in this province. The smallest grain of maize will produce a stalk bearing three cobs, each cob six hundred grains, say eighteen hundred per cent, and yet the people of that lethargic district buy their maize in the Boca whenever they require any. A potatoe, cut in two, will produce in Ayacucho, on an average, 13 to 14 to the stalk; yet these lazy duffers called Ayacucho estancieros buy their potatoes also in the Boca. What the people in that district mean by spending all their money in Boca vegetables, and paying steam freight into the bargain, is really difficult to say, unless it be to show the people of B. Ayres that sheep and cattle farming pay better down there than elsewhere, and the farmers have no time to grow vegetables.

The greatest error that ever was printed! There is not a farmer in the Plate, whether sheep or cattle, who has not ample time, ample land, ample means to grow vegetables at every 'puesto' and at every estancia house on his land; but prosperity snaggs them all up: they are too well off: they have money in both pockets all the year round, sheep and cattle increase, multiply and pay for everything. A few paper dollars to McLean and Feeley, and even the very 'puesteros' may have asparagus for lunch!

Search the world round and not even in the Danubian Principalities can you find a greater type of laziness than the Ayacucho sheep-farmer or estanciero, who, wallowing in 'novillo' and wool money, never by any chance takes a spade in his hands: his puestos and estancias are mere dwellings without the slightest tinge of cultivation: the vine, the peach, the apple, the apricot, everywhere would grow with tropical profusion in Ayacucho, but the unhappy people are too prosperous, too well off: the Ayacucho farmer if he wants vegetables for his table, instead of planting and sowing and growing them in a garden alongside his house, writes a note up to Mr Fitzgerald of the Boca, so—

Dear Fitz,

Please send me by train an arrobe of potatoes, a dozen of tomatoes, a hank of onions, 3 pumpkins, 4 large sweet potatoes, 4 heads of white cabbage, a dollar's worth of parsley and 3 carrots.

Yours,

Ayacucho Estanciero.

We put it to the country whether in view of these facts it is right or just or proper to allow an Ayacucho man to vote; whether, in fact, manhood suffrage should not be abolished in toto in every district where the people are such duffers that they cannot even grow their own vegetables. Things are undergoing great and rapid change in this land, and where's the wonder? In Flores the people are so industrious that they grow everything, and a horse-cart of ripe peaches can be bought at three paper dollars; yet the Flores people, with all their industry, have no greater rights than the Ayacucho men, who have attar of roses on their dressing-tables and yet cannot grow even a turnip.

ESTANCIA ESPARTILLAR.

OPENING OF NEW CHAPEL AND SCHOOL.

For eighteen years, at regular intervals, the Scottish Presbyterian service has been held at the estancia Espartillar. The attendances have been almost invariably good, and the support given towards the maintenance of the Pastorate of St. Andrew's church, Chascomus, has been generally of a satisfactory kind. These meetings and contributions for many years were fostered and encouraged by the former popular and enterprising manager Mr Reid. The large dining-room of the estancia house was kindly granted for the quarterly Sabbath gatherings. It was long felt, however, that a building specially set apart for religious ordinances would be much more convenient. About three years ago, a school was also established at the estancia, for the education of the children of employees, native and foreign, and the instruction of the workmen during winter evenings. The room appropriated for this purpose was found to be too small, and inconveniently placed. Now all this has been remedied, and all that was felt to be desirable has been generously provided by the liberality of the worthy proprietor of this ever-improving and magnificent estate, John Fair Esq.

A range of buildings has been raised in the policiez, comprising two large and commodious halls, and a spacious room for the teacher, the largest being the chapel, measuring 30 ft. by 15 ft., and the second the school-room, 20 ft. by 15 ft. All the rooms have been tastefully painted, have varnished pine ceilings, and are fronted with a wide corridor. The building, embowered in the woods, has an attractive and picturesque appearance.

The Chapel was opened for divine service on Sunday last, when about 70 people gathered together to assist on the interesting occasion. The Rev. M P Ferguson conducted the service. His text was from St John IV. 35, 'Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, for they are white already to harvest.'

A select choir from Chascomus attended and rendered valuable aid in the service of praise and sacred song. Mr Ferguson closed his discourse by remarking: It is our pleasing privilege to declare this beautiful building set apart for the Worship of the Most High, and for all improving and good purposes such as a Reading Room and Library, and we accord our unqualified meed of approbation to the philanthropic proprietor of this large establishment for his kindly interest in the moral and spiritual welfare of his employees, and the educational training of their children, having also provided a school room, and dwelling for the teacher, Mr Paton. As was said of the Roman Centurion, we may say of Mr Fair: 'He is worthy, and hath built us a synagogue.' It is a good example which he has set to other wealthy proprietors of land, to those who have solely in view their selfish gratification, their own material enrichment, and the proud display of princely possessions, who have no recognition of themselves as the custodies or stewards of the Supreme Giver. The question of the tenure of land is exciting a deep interest and causing terrible anxiety 'at home;' the ripple of the stormy wave may yet roll against these shores, but we venture to say that so long as proprietors evince the same amount of interest in the welfare of employees and their children as the present owner of the Espartillar, there need be little fear of any uprising against them, any land leagues or agrarian revolutions. These praiseworthy efforts in the right direction are ably seconded by the present active manager Mr A Ross, who in the words of the Times' correspondent, is eminently qualified for his arduous post by vigour of brain and strength of muscle, and we might add, by what is essential, suavity of manner and kindliness of disposition. The work is also aided by a staff of courteous and intelligent assistants. May the blessing of God, rest upon and consecrate this comfortable and commodious Chapel and attend all the efforts put forth by liberal-minded and liberal-handed proprietors for the welfare of our countrymen and all whom this can affect for good.

On Monday, the new school was opened, and the annual examination of the scholars took place. A lengthened and minute testing of all the classes in the different branches was carried out by the Rev. Mr Ferguson and Mr Jones of Chascomus. In writing, arithmetic, composition and geography the pupils showed great proficiency, evidencing the utmost care and unwearied patience, which Mr Paton, the excellent teacher, must have exercised in their training. We are glad to find that his qualities and qualifications are so much appreciated by the parents. Spanish is also efficiently taught, there being children of several nationalities attending school. At the close, prizes were distributed, and it was gratifying to notice how much delighted the children were at their reception and at the interest taken in their education. Mr Ferguson asked them to send a warm tribute of thanks to Mr Fair for his kindness in providing such a comfortable school-room, furnished with the latest improvements in school apparatus, the desks being also suitable for pews in church, and tables, if requisite, at soirees. Mr Fry, in behalf of Mr Ross, who was unavoidably absent on pressing camp business, replied in a few choice and pithy phrases, and moved a vote of thanks to the examiners and to those who had shown their interest in the school by their countenance of the pleasing proceedings.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Pacific Company's steamer Araucania brings dates from London to 14th ult, Paris 15th and Lisbon 20th. There was again a delay in delivering the mails, which were not distributed till well into the afternoon, why, we cannot comprehend, except that Buenos Aires is not London or Paris. The House of Commons threw out Mr. Parnell's amendment to the Address by 435 to 57 votes. Mr. Shaw and several other quondam Home Rulers refuse to be led any longer by Mr. Parnell, owing to the extreme proceedings of the Land League, and they now form another party, styled the Irish Whigs. In the Lords, Lord Granville alluded in most complimentary terms to the sound and prudent counsels given to the Irish people by His Holiness Pope Leo XIII., in his letter to the Catholic Archbishop of Dublin. In British diplomatic circles war between Greece and Turkey is now considered inevitable. The Sultan wont listen to arbitration on the terms proposed. The Emperor of Brazil has conferred the Grand Cross of the Order of the Cruzeiro on President Grevy of France.

Land, ho! Let men with money in their purse not forget Mr, Rom's great land auction to-morrow. There are lots in the catalogue that are worth a deal of gold, and all are good. Very keen competition may be expected to-morrow at the Central Land Office.

The French St. Cloud fete at the Eliseo is the great attraction for city folk to-day. President Roca will be present, and on his entrance the National Hymn will be played by the combined French and Italian bands—over 250 musicians. The National Anthem has never before been played by such a monster band. For those who do not care for fetes, Calypso Island, at the Tigre, is the place whereat to spend the day.

His Majesty the King of Italy has conferred the dignity of Chevalier of the Order of the Crown on his excellent subject Mr Gaetano Gaudolfi of this market, whom we beg to congratulate on the distinction.

The Pampa gives the Municipality a very sound piece of advice—viz, to put a stop to the masquerade balls in the same summary fashion as it did the Recoleta fetes. They should only be allowed, if at all, during the three days of Carnival, and we hope to see the day when Carnival itself will be a thing of the past in this country.

The Municipality of Mercedes wants 15,000 tons of Banda Oriental stone. Bids received up to 22nd. Who'll sell?

President Caballero of Paraguay must have discovered some elixir for restoring done-up countries For those who look back even two or three years it sounds uncommonly like a joke to hear of Paraguayan Treasury Notes being at five p. cent premium and the Asuncion Custom House yielding 150,000 pats per month. Yet so advices from Asuncion say. It is evident that poor Paraguay is at last coming round, and very rapidly.

The Reforma of Salta mentions the disappearance from that city of a professor of patocromania, who got into some kleptomania difficulties there with several citizens of credit and renown.

No wonder that wheat and flour are going down. In the department of Diamante in Entre Rios, the wheat crop is estimated at 3½ million kilos.

The house in Rosario which the Cuatros Vientos cafe formerly occupied was sold the other day for 12,000 Bolivians efectivo.

The latest novelty in hats is an imitation of silk hats in paper: it is so well done that even Mr Sommer, or M. Perisse, would take it for the real thing. Our American cousins, or rather one of them, is the inventor.

Mr Frederick Schikendantz has recently published a most interesting report on the mineral wealth of the province of Catamarca, which he declares to be prodigious, only requiring capital and machinery to yield enormous profits.

The telegraph line between Patagones and Choel-e-Choel is finished. Three hundred and eighteen kilometres in three months. We believe this is the most rapid feat in the way of telegraph construction as yet performed in this country.

Telegrams from Bahia Blanca report the camps in that quarter as very dry, and several great fires in which 2000 sheep perished. The Minister of War is going to Bahia Blanca shortly, to see what can be done to improve the port there.

The lightship on the Banco Chico is reported to have dragged her anchors two miles from her proper station. The sooner she is dragged back again the better.

Messrs. Lacrosse open a new branch of their tramway system through Calles Maipu and Arenales to-day. Messrs. Lacrosse are in the front rank of tramway enterprise in B. Aires, and we hope soon to see them introduce air or steam motors for their cars: The saving would be enormous for them.

A dame named Fernandez paid her 44th visit to the Policia on Friday for the old offence—the two ds. As she is not very old, we expect to hear of her 'centenary' in a year or two.

There is tremendous excitement in the partido of Dolores, owing to the parties who recently bought lands at Monte de Tordillos from the Provincial Government serving eviction notice on the squatters, who number over 2,000 souls The Municipality there has asked the neighbours who have vacant lands to allow the poor people to settle on them till the Courts decide whether the Tordillo land belong to the Provincial Government or not, as the Municipality of Dolores has always claimed them.

We deeply regret to announce the death of Dr. John E. Kelly, of Flores. The sad event took place yesterday morning. The funeral will leave his house in the Plaza at Flores this morning, at 11 o'clock. The deceased physician was most highly esteemed by all who knew him, alike for his great professional talents and his personal qualities.

The Salesian Fathers have offered to found a colony at San Jose, Tierra del Fuego, and take in hands all the Indians the troops may capture in Patagonia, If the Fathers are as good farmers as the Trappist Order, their spirited offer should decidedly be accepted,

The Prensa says that if the robbery at the Government naval stores at the Tigre is properly sifted, revelations that will make the very stones in the street rise to 'tomar la palabra' will be made. A 'brillante discurso' from the 'petrified kidneys' of Buenos Aires would be an interesting novelty, although the poet has it that there are 'sermons in stones.'

If what some of our native colleagues say about the conduct of the crowd of sailors usually to be seen round the 'casilla' at the entrance to the Mole be true, it is high time to put a stop to it, for the sake of common decency;

The last bull fight at Montevideo was a failure: the bulls refused to fight, and, for some reason, the public refused to attend, as there were barely 500 persons present. The hotels are filled with Buenos Aireans who are all gettiag prodigiously fat (especially the Ladies) under the combined influence of salt water, fun and fresh air. Last month 35,000 bathing tickets were sold at the Pacitos. It is said that the 'creme' of Montevidean society intends coming up here for Carnival, which is always a sickly business down there:

Yesterday was the anniversary of the battle of Chaaqbuco, and the tomb of the great Argentine Captain in the Cathedral had numerous floral offerings laid on it.

We heard yesterday of a grand pic-nic to come off to-day at Calypso Island, and wind up with a 'tertulia' at Las Conchas.

700,000 arrobes of potatoes were exported from San Nicolas within the past two months.

THE LOCUSTS.

National College
Buenos Ayres Feb. 12th.

To the Editor of the Standard.

Sir,

The Santa Fe colonists have rendered a great service to themselves and to the country by their organized and persistent endeavours to stamp out the locust plague.

I would suggest that in future something be attempted in the way of utilizing the dead insects instead of burning or burying them.

Their eggs and carcases might at a moderate expense be dried, ground and shipped to England as a nitrogenous manure, where its sale would I believe, more than cover the cost of process and freight. If your able correspondent in Rosario will kindly obtain an average sample of dried locusts and forward it to me, I will gladly analyze same and report to him on its manurial and probable commercial value.

Yours truly,

John Kyle.

The gold market ruled weak to-day, prices opening at 29.25, and closing at 29.20, the vencimientos amounted to 193,000, and the total sales of the day reached 841,200. It was very currently rumoured on Change that Sr Cortinez, Minister of Hacienda, has received an offer of 86 for the loan and that the offer has come from Paris. This news had an effect on the gold market, and gold was offered on long dates at lower rates.

Cedulas are slightly weaker, selling for the end of March at 89½, and for cash at 89¾.

In Nat. Bank shares there was a short pause; prices did not give way as much as the sellers yesterday anticipated, and at the ring nothing at all sold cash, and but 380 for the end of the month, at 76¾. At afterhours, however, new buyers presented themselves and prices advanced to 77. Nat. Bonds 1863 one sale at 83, and one lot Bushentals at 95.

There was great talk on Change about the Venado Tuerto party that left town this morning: we hear that fully fifty persons go out to see the land, some of them Germans, and rich farmers from the South and West.

It was announced on Change that one of our leading English houses has received orders to ship 2000 horses for account of the British Government to the Cape of Good Hope and Natal.

Advices from London per telegram, as will be seen in another column give Hard Dollars at 73—73¼, which shows a slight fall.

Respecting the great Bravo Concession there is much said, the statement, however, that the proceeds of the Bolivian loan in London are to be applied towards the carrying out of the scheme must be incorrect, as notices have already appeared in the English papers of the division of the loan by order of the Supreme Court amongst the bondholders.

Mr Huss put up on the black board an important telegram to the effect that the invasion of Indians reported was an attack not by Indians but by Gauchos malos.

There was a large amount paid away on 'Change to-day for the produce purchases of the week. Several lots of wool from deposit we hear have been sold, but some of the leading houses received telegrams to-day from Antwerp with continued bad advices. At all the banks there was a brisk cash movement, and on the Bolsa all the tables were crowded.

We have received so many answers to our commercial enigma, that we are compelled to hold many over for the present, it is really remarkable the great interest which the question awakened.

The sale of 3 leagues of land in Mision s, Corrientes, at 4000 pats per league, is reported, a Mexican gentleman the buyer.

The Araucania mails were delivered to-day, the London papers are to the 14th Jan, and we find nothing in them confirming the very alarming news, quoted from the French papers; we give a summary of the news in another column Money was in increased demand in London, and the bank reserve having declined sensibly, the interest rate was advanced, of which we had due notice by telegram.

At afterhours gold underwent some fluctuation rising at one time to 29.30 for the month and 29.30 for March, but at half past 4 o'clock the market dropped, sellers for the month at 29.25, and for March at 29.15. Nat. Bank shares jumped to 77½ and ruled buyers at that rate, one party, who a few days ago sold short bought back 300 shares, the stock is the most speculative in the market and looks upward.

The Araucania made a splendid run down from Rio in 3 days and 3 hours. The Chimborazo has been got off. The Dom Pedro is expected on 16th, she loads for Havre but we believe at higher rates.

On Monday the National Bank meeting comes off; we hear the report will be most flattering to the present able management of the Bank.

By far the most important business reported on 'Change to-day was the renting of half a league of land in Ensenada at the rate of 300 m/c per square; 240,000 m/c per annum for the half league. The estanciero who rents his land to some French chacareros for flax-growing naturally finds it his interest to sell off his cows and sheep and lease his land on such terms. Thus, what we hinted at as likely to happen soon in this country, namely that the chacareros would soon drive the sheepfarmers from the inside camps, has already come to pass. Flax growing, it seems, beats sheep-farming hollow. No sheepfarmer can afford to pay higher than 100 m/c per square rent for land, whilst the flaxgrower pays willingly 300 m/c per square rent. What seems strange is that the flaxgrower, instead of paying 240,000 m/c for a year's rent for half a league of land does not buy some of the Venado Tuerto land, at 150,000 m/c per league, sow on his own land, and according to the figures of the flax crop before us, make four millions currency the first year. Flax sells at Ensenada at 12 m/c per ar., and the crop averages 300 to 450 ar. to the square; out at the Venado Tuerto there would of course be deducted 6 m/c per arroba freight, which would leave 9 m/c per arroba, say 2,250 per square. To buy a square league of land for 150,000 m/c and make four millions out of it the first year is really such dazzling profit that very few can credit it. Nevertheless, there are some facts that admit of no doubt or contradiction. Namely that flax growing beats sheep and cattle farming hollow, and that in Europe they cannot compete with the Plate in growing flax. No sheepfarmer or estanciero could pay 240,000 m/c rent for half a league, nor even for a league and a half of land. The Gorostiaga estancia, 1½ league of wire fenced land, is offering to rent in the market with houses, puestos, estancias, montes, &c., and yet the highest bid offered so far is 140,000 m/c per annum, but if the land is good for flax the landlord may get 840,000 m/c per annum rent for his land. The leasing of this Ensenada estancia has come under our own observation, and the rent, terms and conditions are personally known to us. The estanciero who has rented his land and sells off 15,000 sheep and 600 cows to make room for the flaxgrower is one of the most intelligent and enterprising in the Plate; his word may be fully relied on, and the sale of his stock was concluded yesterday, as he has leased his estancia half league of land for five years on the terms above expressed, a French house in this market guaranteeing both rent and lease. These are indeed tremendous facts, and point to a newer and better departure in this country than if we discovered some great Californian gold mine. Flax growing this season has given to the farmers from 2,000 to 4,000 m/c profit per square, and the crop has proved splendid in all directions. Oil mills are now working here in this city, in the country towns, and in the provinces; the oil manufactured at Santa Fe is bottled and labelled as the best olive oil and sold in this city. Oil cake is also made here, and as many of our mercantile readers may have observed in the cargo lists of the steamers sailing, thousands and thousands of bags of the nuts are shipped to Europe, the production being far in excess of the greatest possible consumption. As the crop this year has proved so very splendid, it is not improbable that next year flax growing will assume much greater proportions, all the inside lands at present under sheep must necessarily pass into the hands of agricultural laborers. A year ago this half league of land at Ensenada would have been considered well rented at 50,000 m/c per annum; sheepfarmers might have been found to pay that rent, but we doubt if there were any in this market who a year ago believed half a league of Ensenada land would be rented for 240,000 m/c per annum for flax growing. Farmers and estancieros should study closely this matter and secure the new camps outside for their stock before the chacareros ins de evict them.

Mr Bridger, of Paysandu, was welcomed on Change; he reports locusts very bad up there, in some parts whole suertes of camp eaten up; saladeros doing but very little business, and even the great Liebig factory only killing slowly.

The Minister of War will shortly proceed to Bahia Blanca, where we hear very important works are about to be undertaken by the Nat. Government. Bahia Blanca is destined to be a very important place.

The Montevidean Executive has passed to the Chambers a lengthy message on the consolidation of the debt, and advising the postponement of the service of the debt known as the 'amortizable'. The document points to the very melancholy state of Oriental finances, when the revenue does not even suffice to meet the expenses of the ordinary budget. Amongst many othe s analogious items there is a law authorizing the Government to invest 200,000 pats. in immigration expenses, and which amount may be claimed any day or at least in part; there is another law giving a subvention of $f.7,000 to the Pando Railway per every kilometer of rails laid down. Supposing that the Railway Company had laid down last year fourteen kilometers there would be 84,000 pats due; should the Chambers sanction the debt of the Salto, Santa Rosa R. lway, the obligation would amount to 72,000 pats. The Treasury is already enough burdened, and would be unable to meet the obligations of these railways and other laws. Furthermore, there are balances due to the Commercial and London & River Plate Banks; the latter, due since 1875 with interest amount to $f.80,000. Then there is the question with the Belgian Bank; last not least there remains the San Jose Railroad guarantee. Such are the obligations which the empty Treasury is expected to meet. The sanction of the Deuda Flotante will involve a serious outlay of not less than 7,500,000 pats, including the Bonos Consolidados and interest; the equilibrium of the budget would be ephemeral, and this fresh expense would thwart all the late measures of the Government to balance expenses and revenue. The Chambers rely on the increase in the Custom House receipts, which are stationary and tending to decrease. The Executive begs that the service of the debt may be only made obligatory in the first quarter of 1882, when the Chambers may judge of the revenue of 1881.

COMMERCIAL ARITHMETIC.

B. Aires, Feb. 11th, 1881.

Dear Sir,

The solution published by you of the commission problem appears to me to be incorrect, and I submit the following:—

Amount of first sale	$f.12,113.50
Commission 5 o/o	605.67
	$f.11,507.83
Wool purchased 2,793 ar. and 4 lbs., say $100 m/c. $279,316, or $f.11,172.65
Commission 3 o/o	335.18
	$f.11,172.65
Same amount of wool sold at same price.
Commission 1 o/o	111.73
Amount remitted	11,060.92

The commission of 1 o/o being chargeable on the proceeds of the wool sold and not on the amount of the remittance. At the same time I would point out that the problem as published by you is imperfectly stated either through ignorance of the meaning of the words employed or from an intention to mislead. Had the propounder wished the transaction to be considered as admitting the solution you have published he should have stated the problem thus:—A merchant in Buenos Ayres has orders to sell a consignment of goods and to retain a commission of 5 o/o and to invest remainder in wool after reserving 3 o/o for commission on amount of wool purchased. This has been done when orders are received to sell the wool for cost and to remit proceeds charging 1 o/o commission on amount of remittance.

The problem as originally stated by you would justify anyone in considering the answer to be $f.12,000.

Yours truly,

C.

In the Commons, the debate on Mr Parnell's amendment to the Address in reply to the Queen's Speech was resumed, and again adjourned.

From Pietermaritzburg our special correspondent telegraphs that the Boer residents in Cape Colony and the Free State are holding numerous meetings, at which resolutions are adopted in favour of a restoration of the independence of the Transvaal.

A despatch from the Private Secretary of the Governor of Bombay states that no foundation exists for the reported discovery of a conspiracy to massacre the Europeans at Kolapore or elsewhere in the Bombay Presidency.

Our Paris correspondent telegraphs the full text of M. Barthelemy Saint-Hilaire's new circular on the Greek Question, in which an appeal is made to the Powers by France, in the name of peace in the East, which is threatened by the pretentions and the warlike preparations of Greece.

Orders have been issued by the Sultan to his Ministers to decide without further delay upon the terms of the Note to be addressed to the Powers on the Greek question, and with this view an extraordinary Cabinet Council was summoned to take place yesterday afternoon.

Telegraphing last night, our Berlin correspondent states that a German courier has been sent with despatches to Constantinople, recommending the Porte to remain on the defensive as long as possible, so as not to assume the responsibility for the breaking out of hostilities.

M. Coumoundouros, according to the Athens correspondent of Neue Freie Presse, declared that the arbitration project was unacceptable, and even if directly proposed would be refused.

A telegram has been received at St. Petersburg from the Grand Duke Michael giving particulars of the investment of Geok Tepe by the Russian force under General Skobeleff. The fighting on the 4th inst. is stated to have been most desperate and sanguinary.

Though continuing to receive the reports of the Ministers, the Emperor William has not been able to leave his room for the last two days, in consequence of his having a slight cold.

The Panama Star and Herald of the 4th inst. reports that 12,000 Chilians had landed at Corayaco and subsequently attacked Lurin, near Lima, which they carried at the point of the bayonet, dislodging 9,000 Peruvians from a good position.

Professor Hind has written another letter to the Marquis of Lorne pointing out additional falsifications in the coal and fish statistics submitted to the Halifax Arbitration Commission.

In the Court of Queen's Bench yesterday the Crown prosecutions were resumed. The court was crowded, amongst those present being the Roman Catholic Bishops of Meath, Killala and Raphoe. Sensation was created in the hall by the appearance of about two hundred evicted tenants, who have been brought up from the provinces to be examined. Mr. Macdonogh commenced his address for the defence, and had not concluded when the Court rose.

At Tuam Quarter Sessions yesterday, eighteen men were, at the instance of the Attorney-General, sent for trial to the Galway Assizes on the charge of having committed a Whiteboy offence.

Yesterday morning a caretaker on the property of the Marquis of Ely at Aughamuldooney, near Garrison, county Fermanagh, was fired at by some parties who were engaged poaching. Three men, Bernard Keown and two sons, have been arrested for being concerned in the outrage.

Yesterday, the Bank of England rate was raised from 3 to 3½ per cent. On the Stock Exchange, prices generally were rather flat, and a decline occurred in foreign bonds and some of the home railways. Great Eastern and London and North-Western, however, improved. Canadian and American lines were inactive, but Reading shares advanced. No change was reported in Consols.

STATE OF IRELAND.

A largely-attended meeting was held near Loughrea, county Galway, on Wednesday evening, for the purpose of calling upon Mr Mitchell Henry, M.P. for the county, to resign his seat. Several speeches were delivered, in which Mr M. Henry's speech in the House of Commons on Tuesday night was violently denounced. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted :—'Resolved, that we utterly fail to find language to condemn the lying and misleading statements contained in Mr Henry's speech in the House of Commons on Tuesday night, and as we are fully alive to the important crisis our country is going through, we at once call upon the electors of Galway, in the name of our ill-governed motherland, to demand Mr. Henry's resignation : 'That in the interests of truth and justice we enter our solemn protest to give our strongest condemnation to the statements contained in Mr Henry's recent letter to the Radical League, and we hereby call upon the electors of Galway to join with us in the same condemnation.' 'That we express our entire confidence and heartfelt gratitude to the Irish National Land League as the only means of rescuing us from landlord oppression and English misrule.'

The adjourned case against six men for 'Boycotting' a farmer at Clogheen came on again yesterday, at Clonmel. Three of the defendants were committed for trial on charges of conspiracy and intimidation, and the case against the remainder was withdrawn. Bail was accepted.

Mr Foley, M.P., has intimated his resignation to the electors of New Ross by placard, yesterday. Mr Redmond has issued his address, and states that he will be a determined enemy of British rule in Ireland, and a member of the Land League.

A caretaker on the estate of Lord Ely, at Aughaumldowny, near Garrison, was fired at yesterday morning by a party of men. A father and two sons named Keown have been arrested.

In the Landed Estates Court yesterday, before Judge Ormsby, in the case of the estate of the trustees of Bury, Mr Coll, solicitor, on behalf of tenants of lands in the counties of Meath and Kildare (part of which are about to be sold in court) applied for an order that the settlement of the rental be deferred until they had some opportunity of learning the views of the Government in regard to land legislation, as they contemplate purchasing their holdings. The application was opposed on behalf of the Hibernian Bank, who hold a mortgage for £2,000 on the lands. The bank desired that the proceedings should go at once to sale, as they were getting neither principal nor interest, and the matter had been before the Court since 1876. Judge Ormsby allowed the application to stand over to afford the solicitor an opportunity to obtain the consent of the bank representatives to further delay, otherwise he would direct the examiner to proceed with the settlement of the rental.

At the meeting of the Tullamore branch of the Land League yesterday, it was resolved to oppose, at the forthcoming poor-law elections, all candidates who are not staunch Land Leaguers.

At Tuam Quarter Sessions yesterday, eighteen men were committed for trial at Galway Assizes for Whiteboy offences. Mr Henderson, solicitor for the Crown, prosecuted, and made an application that, owing to the disturbed condition of the country and the prevalence of lawlessness, the accused be not admitted to bail. The Judge agreed, and the eighteen were conveyed under strong escort to Galway Gaol. Eight men, accused of forming part of a mob that attacked a police barrack at Milton, were also brought for trial, but sent forward to the March Assizes. Bail was not accepted. It is understood an application for bail will be made to the Court of Queen's Bench by the Land League.

MONTEVIDEO.

Dear Standard,

As the bathing season is at its height, and 6000 people now assemble at the Pocitos, the dear old rugged Buceo is coming slowly to the front, and charitable proposals are even mooted to raise that cherished and forlorn sport to a higher rank. The Buceo, with all its natural charms, has a history of its own, and links us to many pleasurable recollections of the past, when years ago we used to dip and watch the ocean steamers pass with the telescope. The favorite spot of predilection of the Saxons here resident must undergo many improvements before we can resuscitate its treasured and forgotten reputation. First and foremost, the neighbours should construct neat chalets in the Swiss style, something like those hidden in the shady trees of Arcachon, where recently married couples might spend the 'lune de miel,' looking at the moon as her rays are playing on the shining waters of the Plate : fashion and romance would endear the spot of pleasure. Modern bath bullock carts might be improvised, a great improvement on the horrid funeral looking vehicles at Ostende or domestic Blankenberg : or the young folks might do as in Scheveningen, enveloped in a sheet, a blanket or a poncho, they might plunge from their chalét into the brine, without risking the fate of Andromeda. A couple of years would witness a remarkable change : fine hotels would spring up, periodically crowded with the fashion and wealth of the River Plate. The Coursale, a natural sequence to a bathing institution, would be supreme, and every summer would beckon your harassed ship-brokers, worn-out tea merchants tanned hide speculators and wool consignees, with millions to their backs, accompanied by Madame and little ones, to dip into the salt and throw off the dyspeptic influence of fresh water and pampa beef ; meantime the fashionable brokers who drive their gigs with wretched old mancarones down Calle San Martin, might feast on the panorama of the beach, studded with everything in the of shape cosmopolitan loveliness, affording meditations more easily understood than described. Whilst the older portion was bathing and amusing itself in the water, the little children, all dressed in nautical costumes, might play croquet or dig holes in the sand, or play hide and go seek in the garden mazes. If unfortunate Banda Oriental has proved a political failure, Uruguayans may at least look down on the Argentina, as regards personal attractions and fashionable rendezvous in the sea bathing line. The Argentine aristocrats will abandon all ideas of Paris trips or delightful Baden-Baden sojourns, drinking Affenthaler with the 'frauleins' on the top of the Mercurius, if the Buceo is only well managed : a boulevard along its great extension, with fine trees and lined with beautiful villas would throw Nice in the shade, and make one forget the Mediterranean and the Fata Morgana. To complete the picture, a heathen god, in the shape of a satyr, and some old Venus goddess might be stowed away in some rustic nook, in order to link the pleasant follies of the present with the amiable depravity of the past. Poety, Romance, Mammon and Beauty would claim the present quaint old Buceo as their own, and give a further impulse to a delightful recreation, which consists in cleanliness, and 'ergo' is next to godliness : Epicurus thought so, and his followers acted up to the teaching. There is no healthier institution than the bath, and refinement, health and culture mark the people who honour the institution. Away with Diogenes and his tub, with Anthisthenes and his rags. Let us be heathens in cleanliness and dip into the Buceo like the Egyptian priest into the Nile, in spite of the crocodiles. As long as River Plate people bathe in their rivers, their prospects will be as large as the expanse they dip into. Let them, like Thales, reduce everything to water; and I really do think that continued bathing will wash the present political mind of the country ; and it is badly in want of it. The exercise may bring on an individual knowledge of hydraulics and hydrostatics, which may weed out the past and retrograde system of Government. There is nothing like water, and there is plenty of the element in the Plate,

The rumoured resignation of President Vidal, announced by telegram in Buenos Aires, has no foundation whatever, to judge by the categorical contradiction the 'bola' has elicited from official quarters. It would be an unpardonable mistake if, Dr. Vidal wished to avoid the responsibilities of his office by this measure. Resignation in a President is very poor policy, and shows a mental incapacity to deal with the contending elements of the day. Dr. Vidal must sit in the Presidential chair until his term expires. For the present his countrymen commiserate him, owing to his precarious condition and feeble, vacillating policy : they esteem him as a good man, but opprobrium would follow his footsteps should he, Latorre like, throw over the reins of Government to enjoy the retirement of private life,
